VISIT LOUISA ISSUE NO. 25

Located in Central Virginia, less than an hour from Richmond, Charlottesville and Fredericksburg, Louisa offers the opportunity to escape the hustle and bustle. Use this guide to learn the ways you can visit, play, relax and repeat in beautiful Louisa County.

COVER IMAGE: LOUISA TRAIN STATION,
VIRGINIA SCENIC RAILWAY

All Aboard, Louisa!

Excursions with the Virginia Scenic Railway

The Virginia Scenic Railway's excursion trains departing from and returning to the Town of Louisa offer unforgettable experiences, just minutes from Main Street. With a beautifully restored historic train depot serving as the stop, these rides in vintage-style rail cars allow travelers to experience great food and drink, scenic views, and even seasonal themes. Whether you're a longtime rail enthusiast or looking for something different, these trips bring a nostalgic flavor.

Current experiences include:

Louisa Flyer

The Louisa Flyer is the perfect introduction to scenic rail travel. This laid-back excursion offers a great meal and departs from Louisa and travels west along the tracks before returning for a leisurely ride back. It's designed to help you unplug from the everyday hustle and reconnect.

Sunday Brunch

For a memorable weekend treat, step aboard the Sunday Brunch train. Sip freshly brewed coffee and delight in chef-prepared brunch fare as the countryside unfolds outside your window. With attentive onboard service and a relaxed mid-morning pace, it's a truly special way to celebrate Sundays with friends or loved ones.

Sip & Savor Express

Calling all wine lovers: the Sip & Savor Express pairs Virginia’s vibrant wine culture with scenic rail views. Each month features a different Virginia winery, offering guided tastings of premium local wines and complementary charcuterie aboard the train. Whether you’re a seasoned oenophile or just exploring Virginia wine country for the first time, this experience blends delicious pours with picturesque landscapes.

Ales & Rails

If craft beer is more your speed, Ales & Rails is your ticket. This rotating beer tasting train spotlights local breweries and thoughtfully paired snacks as you glide through Virginia’s countryside. It’s a lively way to spend a few hours with friends, sampling the tastes of the region and soaking in sunshine and scenery.

Discover Louisa Before or After Your Ride

The fun doesn’t stop at the station! Make your day even richer by exploring the Town of Louisa and be sure to plan a visit to the Sargeant Museum of Louisa County History & Visitors Center, conveniently located just a short walk from the depot. Learn about early rail travel, historic rail lines, and how the Virginia Scenic Railway’s revival of the depot links past and present.

Plan Your Visit

Train excursions run on select weekends and fill up quickly, so reserve your seats early for the best selection of dates and experiences. Check the schedule and ticket availability online before you arrive.

MUSIC, SHOWS & EVENTS

If the spirit moves you, check out Dunnlorra Inn.

There's nothing quite like getting into the spirit of a beautiful bed and breakfast. And when it comes to the Dunnlorra Inn, we mean that literally ... because its owner is a medium who does ghost tours. Mineral, Virginia, you see, has quite the history as a mining town. And that rich history just may be responsible for the spirits that haunt Dunnlorra Inn. Whatever the case may be, owner Lacey Palmer loves regaling her guests with tales of Mineral's past. So if you're looking for an inn with a history like no other, come to Dunnlorra and stay for a spell.

Your prospects are looking bright at Prospect Hill.

When you think bed and breakfast, certain things come to mind. Epic and spacious, however, are probably not among them ... unless you've stayed at Prospect Hill. Prospect Hill takes the intimacy, charm and beauty of the typical bed and breakfast and dials it up. More resort than inn, Prospect Hill boasts 12 rooms and cottages, private luxury bathrooms, fine dining, a massive 40-acre estate and a pool. And it's located in the heart of Virginia wine country. Come experience the luxe version of a Virginia bed and breakfast at the oldest, continually operated frame house in the state. From weddings and events to romantic getaways, there's nothing quite like the thrill of Prospect Hill.

"Life is busy, stressful, and chaotic," said Owner Terenée Mormando. "Our goal at Prospect Hill is to pamper our guests, allowing them the time and atmosphere to relax, recharge, and reconnect."

The Areas of Louisa County: 101

Louisa County is a destination made up of distinct areas and landscapes, each offering its own flavor of history, recreation, dining, and Central Virginia charm. Whether you're drawn to waterfront adventures, historic districts, scenic drives, or interstate access, Louisa County invites you to explore it all.

Lake Anna: Waterfront Fun and Relaxation

Lake Anna is one of Louisa County's most popular destinations, known for its relaxed waterfront atmosphere and abundance of outdoor recreation. Located just a short drive from Spotsylvania, Fredericksburg, and Orange, Lake Anna makes an ideal getaway for visitors from across Central and Northern Virginia. Here, visitors can enjoy waterfront dining with beautiful lake views, browse locally owned shops, or spend the day out on the water. Boat rentals make it easy to explore the lake at your own pace, while fishing enthusiasts can hire experienced local guides for a memorable day casting a line. From swimming and boating to lakeside sunsets, Lake Anna offers the perfect blend of relaxation and adventure.

The Town of Louisa: History, Dining, and Rail Adventures

The Town of Louisa serves as the county seat of Louisa County and offers a selection of locally owned shops, restaurants, and cafés. History lovers will enjoy nearby historic sites as well as the opportunity to experience the Virginia Scenic Railway, which departs from the Town of Louisa and offers excursion trips. The Louisa County Visitor Center is also located in the Town of Louisa, making it an ideal first stop for trip planning, maps, and local recommendations. For those looking to stay overnight, the town is home to a welcoming bed and breakfast that adds to its small-town appeal.

The Town of Mineral: Small-Town Charm Close By

Just minutes from the Town of Louisa, the Town of Mineral offers its own unique personality and welcoming atmosphere. This close proximity makes it easy for visitors to enjoy both towns in a single trip. Mineral features local shopping and dining options that reflect its close-knit community spirit and historic roots. Like Louisa, Mineral also has a charming bed and breakfast, providing visitors with another comfortable lodging option while exploring the county.

Historic Green Springs: Scenic Drives and Outdoor Exploration

preserved rural landscape. Visitors can explore Brackett's Farm, which offers trail opportunities ideal for walking and bird watching, along with a lake that enhances the property's serene setting. Green Springs is perfect for those who appreciate scenic beauty, history, and outdoor exploration all in one place.

Zion Crossroads: Off Interstate 64

Situated just off Interstate 64, Zion Crossroads provides convenient access to Louisa County and is located only a short drive from Charlottesville. This makes it an ideal base for visitors who want easy interstate access while remaining close to both Louisa County attractions and nearby destinations. Zion Crossroads offers several chain retail, dining, and lodging options, along with local favorites. Whether you're stopping for a meal, staying overnight, or using the area as a launching point to explore the rest of the county, Zion Crossroads combines convenience with comfort.

HISTORY

Drive the roads where the hoof beats of history reverberate... where Jack Jouett rode to save the lives of Thomas Jefferson and other founding fathers; and where General George Custer made his first "last stand" at the Battle of Trevilian Station, one of the largest all-cavalry engagements of the Civil War. The Louisa County Historical Museum offers tours and genealogy resources. The walking tour of the Town of Louisa and the Civil War driving tour are great ways to explore the region's history together as a family. Please use the Visit Louisa app's Experiences tab for more.

STAND IN THEIR FOOTSTEPS

Photographs taken during the Civil War are among the first widely published battlefield images. Photos brought the realities of war into homes of both the North and the South. Imagine standing at Deep Bottom Landing outside of Richmond watching the bridge being created just as a wartime photographer did.

Working in wagons, Civil War photographers poured a light-sensitive liquid called collodion over a glass or tin plate that was then carefully rushed in a light-proof container to the camera. The cap on the camera lens was uncovered for just a few seconds, exposing the sensitized plate to the image, and the plate was hustled back to the darkroom to be developed. These early pioneers of photography helped advance this art so that today you can effortlessly snap photos in seconds.
