Legendary Steam Train Coming to Louisa

The famed N&W Class J 611 is coming to Louisa this summer, giving riders an opportunity to see how American railroads operated during the glorious days of steam! As a super-power locomotive, she is not just a machine, she is a living, breathing icon of American engineering. The engine is the official Steam Locomotive for the State of Virginia, is designated a National Historic Mechanical Engineering Landmark, and is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Tickets are expected to be released on April 15, 2026 through the Virginia Scenic Railway website. Coming for the July 4th weekend? Make plans to also participate in the Town of Louisa Fourth of July Celebration and Fireworks.

Parking information for the Town of Louisa will be available soon to accommodate passengers, Fourth of July eventgoers, and onlookers. For those viewing this living piece of history as it travels the tracks, we remind you that walking on railroad tracks is not only dangerous, but also illegal.

Celebrate the Fourth of July in Louisa, Virginia Parade, Fireworks & Family Fun

Looking for the perfect Fourth of July celebration near Richmond or Charlottesville? Head to the Town of Louisa on July 4, 2026, for a classic small-town Independence Day celebration filled with patriotic pride, live music, family activities, local vendors, and a spectacular fireworks finale. Located in the heart of Central Virginia, Louisa offers the kind of Fourth of July traditions many people remember growing up with – kids playing games, a festive parade through historic Main Street, and fireworks lighting up the summer sky.

The Town of Louisa Fourth of July Celebration will take place from 4:00 PM to 9:00 PM along Main Street and at the Louisa Firemen's Fairgrounds on July 4. Visitors can enjoy a full lineup of activities including: A patriotic community parade through historic downtown; Live music and entertainment throughout the evening; A vendor festival featuring food, crafts, and local businesses; Family and kids activities perfect for all ages; and a grand fireworks display to close out the night. The celebration reflects everything people love about Independence Day – community, tradition, family fun, and a shared sense of pride in our nation's history. Bring a lawn chair or blanket, gather your friends and family, and enjoy an evening of music, community, and fireworks in one of Virginia's most welcoming small towns.

Celebrate Independence Day at Lake Anna, Virginia

A Dazzling Fourth of July Tradition in Louisa County

There's no better place to celebrate America's birthday than right here in Louisa County, Virginia, where community pride shines as brightly as the fireworks over Lake Anna. Each year, families, friends and visitors from across the region gather to enjoy one of Central Virginia's most spectacular summer traditions, the "Lake Anna Fourth of July Fireworks Show."

From sunrise to sunset, Lake Anna is alive with excitement. Boaters and swimmers take to the water early, while picnickers set up along the shoreline to enjoy the warm summer breeze. Whether you're fishing at dawn, cruising the lake in the afternoon, or relaxing at Lake Anna's beautiful State Park, there is no shortage of ways to soak up the day before the evening celebration begins.

As dusk approaches, the lake transforms into a sea of glowing lights as boats drop anchor, families gather on docks, and friends spread out blankets for the best view of the show.

When the first firework streaks across the night sky, all eyes turn upward and the magic begins. Vibrant bursts of color reflect off the calm waters of Lake Anna, creating a breathtaking mirror image that doubles the beauty of the display. The grand finale is a crowd favorite, lighting up the entire horizon in a dazzling tribute to freedom and community.

Many say there is nothing quite like watching the fireworks from a boat, surrounded by the sounds of laughter, music and celebration echoing across the lake. But whether you are on the water or watching from shore, the experience is one you will remember for years to come.

If the spirit moves you, check out Dunnlorra Inn.

There's nothing quite like getting into the spirit of a beautiful bed and breakfast. And when it comes to the Dunnlorra Inn, we mean that literally ... because its owner is a medium who does ghost tours. Mineral, Virginia, you see, has quite the history as a mining town. And that rich history just may be responsible for the spirits that haunt Dunnlorra Inn. Whatever the case may be, owner Lacey Palmer loves regaling her guests with tales of Mineral's past. So if you're looking for an inn with a history like no other, come to Dunnlorra and stay for a spell.

Your prospects are looking bright at Prospect Hill.

When you think bed and breakfast, certain things come to mind. Epic and spacious, however, are probably not among them ... unless you've stayed at Prospect Hill. Prospect Hill takes the intimacy, charm and beauty of the typical bed and breakfast and dials it up. More resort than inn, Prospect Hill boasts 12 rooms and cottages, private luxury bathrooms, fine dining, a massive 40-acre estate and a pool. And it's located in the heart of Virginia wine country. Come experience the luxe version of a Virginia bed and breakfast at the oldest, continually operated frame house in the state. From weddings and events to romantic getaways, there's nothing quite like the thrill of Prospect Hill.

"Life is busy, stressful, and chaotic," said Owner Terenée Mormando. "Our goal at Prospect Hill is to pamper our guests, allowing them the time and atmosphere to relax, recharge, and reconnect."

HISTORY

Drive the roads where the hoof beats of history reverberate... where Jack Jouett rode to save the lives of Thomas Jefferson and other founding fathers; and where General George Custer made his first "last stand" at the Battle of Trevilian Station, one of the largest all-cavalry engagements of the Civil War. The Louisa County Historical Museum offers tours and genealogy resources. The walking tour of the Town of Louisa and the Civil War driving tour are great ways to explore the region's history together as a family. Please use the Visit Louisa app's Experiences tab for more.
